CSU Larimer County Extension invites you to participate in the 37th Annual Larimer County Farmers' Market in Old Town Fort Collins!

The Saturday morning Larimer County Farmers' Market (LCFM) is a well-recognized, long-established market located in beautiful Old Town Fort Collins. The market is run by Colorado State University Extension Master Gardeners in Larimer County who volunteer their time to oversee market operations.

In order to participate in the 2012 LCFM, we ask all interested vendors to complete the vendor application and Health Department application; include copies of Health Department documents (if applicable) and sign the Food Stamp, Debit and Credit Card Agreement.

Please return the application and agreements, along with your $50 application fee to the Larimer County Extension Office, postmarked by Friday, February 17, 2012. Children under the age of 16 and non-profit organizations are exempt from the application fee. Late applications will not be accepted.

Make checks payable to "Larimer County Extension." Mail payment and application materials to:
1525 Blue Spruce Drive, Fort Collins, CO 80524.
